Student Records and Shared Agreement Contract

The Jackie Joyner-Kersee Foundation partners with the East St. Louis School District 189 to assist with addressing student needs.

The Jackie Joyner-Kersee Foundation may request access to the student’s records including standardized test scores, grades, attendance, behavior reports, and summer school enrollment for any student enrolled in their out-of-school time programs and services. This would enable the Jackie Joyner-Kersee Foundation to identify and assign appropriate supports and services to students. If granted access, the Jackie Joyner-Kersee Foundation staff must maintain the confidentiality of the student’s information, and not re-disclose the information to persons not identified in this consent. The Jackie Joyner-Kersee Foundation staff are only permitted to access student records in their own program and to the extent necessary to perform his/her duties. In addition, the Jackie Joyner-Kersee Foundation may share information about his/her program with school district staff, in order to better serve students.

Confidential information may only be shared to the extent that the information is relevant to the student’s educational progress, safety, or wellbeing. Student information may be disclosed in a grave medical emergency which necessitates facilitation of medical care.

A parent/guardian authorization is required to allow the Jackie Joyner-Kersee Foundation staff to access you child’s data. Please indicate your consent below.
I have read the above and consent to East St. Louis School District 189 to release, obtain, and exchange my child’s information from school district staff and Jackie Joyner-Kersee Foundation.
